I, Bahril, am a programmer with over 4 years of experience in web-based application development, data science, and cloud computing. I am familiar with PHP and JavaScript programming languages, and am proficient in utilizing modern libraries and frameworks such as Laravel, Vue.js with Nuxt.js and React.js with Next.js. I am also experienced in building responsive and aesthetic user interfaces using Bootstrap and Tailwind CSS. In addition to my skills in web development, I have competencies in Data Science including data processing, exploratory data analysis, machine learning, and data visualization using Python. In the field of Cloud Computing, I have participated in the AWS re/Start program which equipped me with skills in managing services such as Amazon EC2, S3, VPC, IAM, automation with CloudFormation, and database management on AWS. With a combination of 4+ years of experience in Full-Stack Development, as well as expertise in Data Science and Cloud Computing, I am ready to contribute to the development of efficient, innovative, and positive impactful technology solutions.

EXPERIENCE

Hasnur Centre – Digitaliz

2022 - Now

Fullstack Web Developer

- Design and optimization of database structures to support application performance.
- Full-stack web application development using the Laravel framework, including the creation of REST APIs.
- Utilization of Laravel's built-in libraries and integration of technologies such as Livewire and Inertia.js to build interactive interfaces without losing Laravel's routing capabilities.
- Implementation of authentication and authorization using Laravel Breeze and Spatial Permission.
- Integration of third-party services such as payment gateways (MidTrans), external APIs, and real-time notification systems using Pusher.
- Use of Git for version control, and application deployment via Laravel Forge and cloud-based servers.
- Optimization of application performance with caching, queues, and database indexing.
- Implementation of Single Sign-On (SSO) using Google OAuth for fast login, as well as SSO between Laravel applications so users can access multiple systems without re-logging in.
- Leading application development projects, from database design, feature development, testing, to launching applications into production environments.

Key Achievements

- a. Successfully led several application development projects from the database design stage to production launch, ensuring timely and user-friendly user experience.
- b. Implemented Single Sign-On (SSO) using Google OAuth and integration between Laravel applications, increasing user login efficiency by up to 40%.
- c. Developed and optimized applications based on Laravel, Livewire, and Inertia.js, significantly improving application performance.
- d. Integrated payment gateways, external APIs, and a real-time notification system using Pusher to enhance the user experience.
- e. Implemented Data Science solutions for internal data analysis, including simple machine learning for user trend prediction.
- f. Managed application deployments through Laravel Forge and AWS cloud infrastructure, including security and system performance optimization.

The New You Institute (TNYI)

May 2026 - Now

Software Developer

- a. Development of digital learning and human transformation platforms supporting personal growth, leadership development, and organizational excellence.
- b. Full-stack engineering of web applications, including culture assessment and culture activation platforms.
- c. Integration of the platforms with institutional systems, email infrastructure, and analytics (Google Workspace, GA4).

Politeknik Negeri Tanah Laut (Politala)

Apr 2026 - Now

Industrial Lecturer (Dosen Industri)

- a. Bridging academic learning with real-world industry practice for students preparing to enter the tech industry.
- b. Sharing hands-on expertise in software engineering, digital transformation, and modern development workflows.
- c. Contributing to curriculum development and industry-aligned mentoring.

Politeknik Hasnur

Sep 2025 - Now

Lecturer - Multimedia Engineering Technology

- a. Teaching practical and theoretical courses in multimedia design, interactive media, web development, and modern software engineering practices.
- b. Preparing students for the creative technology industry through project-based learning.
- c. Conducting academic research and publication in web application performance.

Ruangguru

May 2025 - Now

Coding Instructor

- a. Teaching coding and programming fundamentals at Indonesia's leading EdTech platform.
- b. Guiding students through hands-on learning in web development, JavaScript, and problem-solving.
- c. Designing curriculum and mentoring students in modern software engineering.

ID/X Partners via Rakamin Academy

Dec 2023 - Jan 2024

Data Science Intern (Project-Based)

- a. Completed a project-based internship program focused on data science methodologies.
- b. Applied machine learning algorithms and data analysis techniques using Python on real business cases.

EDUCATION

- a. S1 Teknik Informatika, Universitas Islam Kalimantan Muhammad Arsyad Al Banjari
2018-2022, IPK 3.69
- b. S2 Informatika, Universitas Amikom Yogyakarta
2024-2025, IPK 3.86
